4. Further Topic Briefings

This section sets out a range of issues which Members may want to cover in a Member development programme or through briefings during the year.

1. Work of the PCC Technology Task Force to transform the delivery of services.
2. The links between the Strategic Policing Requirement and wider emergency planning in an area.
3. The role of the PCC in commissioning community safety and services for victims and witnesses of crimes, and the links to commissioning of other services in particular health.
4. The PCC's role in monitoring Force performance.
5. The links between the Panel and other local scrutiny arrangements including crime and disorder overview and scrutiny committees and new health scrutiny structures.
6. Wider local authority / partnership links.
7. Engagement – how is the PCC doing this and what are the outcomes?
8. Data – factual and perception. What is available, what is used and what can the public access?

5. Recent Decisions made by the Police and Crime Commissioner

Between 7 December 2014 and the time of printing this report there were no published decisions from the Police and Crime Commissioner.
