What we will do with your complaint

We will first check that the Panel has the power to look at your complaint.

We will write to you to explain how we will deal with your complaint or tell you if it should be sent to another organisation.

If your complaint alleges criminal conduct the Panel must record it first and pass it to the Independent Office for Police Conduct to investigate. We will let you know if we do this.

Sharing your information

The Panel may share information contained in this form with the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner to establish whether a complaint falls within the Complaints and Misconduct Regulations (and remit of the Panel), and to fact check statements made.

If a complaint is recorded by the Panel the subject of the complaint will be sent a copy of the complaint unless to do so might prejudice any criminal investigation or pending proceedings, or would otherwise be contrary to the public interest.

The Panel must pass complaints alleging criminal conduct to the Independent Office for Police Conduct (IOPC) for investigation.
